

November-December 2013

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Living most of my life by an academic calendar, fall has always been the beginning of the year for me. I am energized and ready to start new things. I clean out cupboards, sort through magazines and get my fabric all lined up and ready to go.

These activities were a bit delayed this year with the stretch of beautiful weather we have had recently. I found myself out in the yard or taking longer walks in the sun when I would usually be in my sewing room. So I was a bit giddy to see the gloomy stretch of weather we have coming up. I look out my window today and see an overcast sky and a chilly wind blowing. A great day to "start".

Yes, I will start going through my UFOs and PHDs and decide which ones to begin again. I will look at my magazines, books and patterns and start planning new projects. I will lovingly caress my batik stash and try to convince myself again that I really need to start using some of it. I'll look at my Christmas and charity projects and get them ready to finish.

Then, I will sit down in front of my sewing machine, listen as it starts up and hear it's beautiful hum! I will turn on some great music, grab some squares and "start".

Ah fall - I am so glad you are here!

I hope you too are energized and inspired to create beautiful quilts this season.

Happy Fall,
Kay

From the Library Corner...

Have you heard of Kaye England? Some of you may not know that Kaye was here a few years ago. We enjoyed an excellent and fun workshop with her. We have three of her teaching DVDs in our library. This is a great way to learn and be inspired!

Let me know if any books or DVD's catch your attention and should be in our library.

QUILT SHOW UPDATE

Keeping in mind that putting on a quilt show will take commitment from our whole membership, we decided to make our goal a one hundred percent participation from our membership, i.e. one quilt hung from each member.

Our Quilt Hang/Placement Chair has had an unexpected issue come up which prevents her from attending the quilt show. Consequently, we will need someone to work with Beth Haubenstricker to learn and lead this process. Beth has generously offered to pass on her experience to the new chairperson. Please consider taking on this position.

Bookmarks will be available to pick up at our meetings. Please take these to any "out of town" quilt shops you will be visiting. The more attendees to our quilt show, means more profit. So let's get the word out. Our raffle quilt is a wonderful way to increase our revenues to keep our dues low and enjoy guest speakers. Be sure to pick up your raffle tickets.

Does anyone have a knack for taking photographs? We would like to have each quilt at our quilt show photographed and then place the photos on cd's as well as post them to our website.

We will be explaining each month, starting in October, the different aspects of the quilt show as an education to our new members and a reminder to our members.

Charity quilts.

The Guild will reimburse for expenses you incur specifically for our charity work. The treasurer has a form to be filled out and a receipt is required. This would cover fabric, batting and backing costs. We have a number of different charity projects.

Our doll quilts for the Salvation Army Christmas should finish at 18" x 22". We have a goal of 300 doll quilts.

Bed quilts for the Maplewood Women and Children's Shelter, should be long twins --- 63" x 90".

Other sizes are donated to other facilities, such as Haven House.

Haven House-we collect food monthly for a donation and/or money

Sadie's Dream for a Cure will accept any size quilt and they will quilt them and provide the batting and backing, if needed.

We provide 2 quilts to the Hartland Fire Dept., one of which is raffled by them for funds.

We also make and donate placemats for Meals On Wheels.

Let our Sunshine Lady know.

Please notify Sally Boron if you are aware of a member who has had in-patient or out-patient surgery, experiencing a long illness, or who has lost a family member.

Thank you.
