

Get noticed at our annual quilt retreat!

Join us as a sponsor for this major guild event!

The Lansing Area Patchers (LAP), located in Lansing, Michigan, is made up of local quilters that love producing wonderful and challenging quilts.

The Lansing Area Patchers Quilt Guild was founded in 1983. The objectives of the Guild are:

- to provide a forum for quilters to meet and exchange ideas
- to form a vehicle for bringing qualified experts in the field to educate members through seminars and workshops
- to contribute charitable and/or educational services to the community

Currently, we have an active membership roster of 60 members.
